American Turf Association.

The following decisions have been rendered by the Board of the National Association for the Promotion of the Interests of the American Trotting Turf, which Board has been holding a two day's session at the Grand Hotel, H. H. Harries, of Chicago, Massachusetts, ex parte, prays for a reinstatement into the Association, of the stallion W. R. Ripley, which has been resting under suspension by order of the Board, but is now the property of the petitioner. Penalty reduced to $100 and the stallion reinstated.

J. B. Lacock, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., applied for a correction of an alleged record of record of the horse Denis. His petition was dismissed.

J. H. Eastbrook, of Denver, Col., who was resting under an order of expulsion imposed May 4, 1875, was restored as an associate member.

R. C. Webster, of Denver, Col., a case similar to Eastbrook's, was also reinstated.

J. L. Eoff, of San Francisco, Cal., resting under an order of expulsion, was reinstated.

The petition of C. H. Ward, of Detroit, for the reinstatement of the stallion of expulsion of himself and his black mare "Daisy," was granted.

J. W. Jacobs, of Plano, Ill., vs. The Marengo Driving Park Association, the complaint alleging the nonpayment of a premium award. Petition allowed.

G. W. Bushnell, of Mendota, Ill., vs. C. M. Brown, of Racine, Wis., and the Gray-riding Club, alleging a fraudulent entry of Wasson under the name of Black Joker. Petition dismissed.

J. B. Dean, of Paterson, N. J., asks the reinstatement of himself and his bay stallion, "Hugie," on the grounds that he had violated the rules by withdrawing from a race without having obtained the consent of the judges. The Board only modified the penalty by substituting a $50 fine, which, when paid, his petition will be granted.

Thomas Peniston, of Toronto, Ont., makes application for the removal of an expulsion of the gelding Gray Eddie, which was expelled on the ground that he had participated in a race in which the time was suppressed. The petitioner admitting that the charge was true, the penalty was modified to a fine of $100.

Nathan B. Frost, of Boston, makes application for a correction of record as to the name of the bay mare Bessie, which had made a race under the assumed name of Topsy. The owner was made liable to the fine he had innocently incurred by having violated one of the rules.

The Association will probably end its session during the week ending next week, and will be held in New York next month.

A Black Diamond.

We gave a short notice yesterday of the case of a colored girl named Emma Carey (not Emily Brown), who has been living as a servant girl at the residence of Joseph L. Hall, No. 526 West Court street, who claims to have lost quite a little fortune at the hands of a fellow servant named Louisa Stoball, also colored, who, Emma claims, took the money, which was stuffed in a big bag and carried on her person.

Emma was sick in bed, and Louisa was visiting her to allay the pain of rheumatism, and coming to this big bouanza, appropriated it. This occurred on last Monday. On Tuesday Louisa jumped the town, and weeded her way to Louisville, where she was pursued by the victim of her dishonesty and officer Dan Cronin, where she was arrested.

The officer ascertained while there that the fugitive had served a term of two years in the penitentiary at Frankfort, Ky., for stealing a gold watch. With Louisa Stoball and three big new trunks which she bought on Fifth street previous to her clandestine flight, and which Cronin says are filled with new dress goods and a new carpet, the whole party, including the prisoner, returned with the prisoner, and her victim.

All the money he found was $30, which he took from Louisa at the time of her arrest. In an interview with a STAR reporter this morning Emma Carey claims that her loss will amount to at least $10,000. In answer to the inquiry how she came by this large amount of wealth, she answered that she inherited the bulk of it, $5,000, from her uncle, Aaron Ross, formerly of Vicksburg, Miss., who is now dead, and that she recently sold a piece of property in Springfield to a colored man named Wash. Back, and received in cash the sum of $400; that she had for 7 years with a family in Xenia, Ohio, and that she had collected from Dr. W. T. Brown, of Xenia street, this city, recently, $300, which she lent him; and that she has lived for the last six months at Mr. Hall's, where she was paid three dollars and a half a week, which she says is true, and she tells us with every appearance of guilelessness, then she is to be commiserated for her heavy loss, and it is to be hoped that the offending Louisa Stoball may be made to disgorge.

A Fountain for Spring Grove.

The Directors of Spring Grove Cemetery, at their meeting this morning, decided to lay pipes from the canal and utilize the waste water for a fountain and reservoir in Spring Grove Cemetery.

The waste water will be carried from the canal by pipes under Millcreek and will be discharged in a powerful pit in the center of an artificial lake, near the Superintendent's building.

Considerable routine business was transacted at the meeting, but nothing else of especial importance to the public.
